

This is far more important to me and thousands of others than the "obscenity" fines and concerns that have been considered by the FCC.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. If there are any fines or sanctions for such behavior it should be invoked to the full extent.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
